

Troop 850 – Trip Description
Operation Slumber (Take 3)
USS Intrepid, Manhattan

- DATE: Saturday, April 7 - Sunday, April 8, 2018
- DEPARTURE: Leave from MUMC - 4:00 pm Saturday April 7
- RETURN: We will be back at the MUMC 10:00 am Sunday April 8
- LOCATION: USS Intrepid, Manhattan
- DESCRIPTION: The Operation Slumber Overnight program is an incredible opportunity for organized youth groups and families to discover what it takes to eat, live and sleep aboard the USS Intrepid. Intrepid is better than ever and all yours from sunset until sunrise the following day. Event includes: Guided Flashlight tours; The Space Shuttle Pavilion; XD Theater Rides; Hands-On Activities; Pop-up Planetarium Shows. Includes dinner, snacks, and breakfast. Trip Open to siblings only if accompanied by a parent.
- COST: $125 per person - payable to “BSA Troop 850”
- LEADERS: Mr Simon Clark. Please note we need a ratio of 1 adult to 5 scouts
- SIGNUP: By Wednesday, February 28, 2018
- BRING:
1. Warm jacket as the tours will go outside,
 2. Sleeping Bag
 3. Pillow
 4. Flashlight
 5. Pajamas
 6. Toothbrush
- INSTRUCTIONS: To sign up from trips go to Trip Sign Up page on troop website:
<http://bsatroop850.com/tripsignup.html> Complete all information and pay either by check or scout account. All checks go to Anna O'Brien, 19 Berkley Avenue, Belle Mead, NJ 08502